

THE DEBATE

2014

Beckstoffer To Kalon Vineyard, Oakville

Color: Shiny, dark black olives with royal velvet on the rim

On the nose: Beautiful spices, cumin, thyme, tomato paste, tobacco leaf, cigar, cedar, granite, papaya, fresh cut strawberries

On the palate: Dense but balanced entrance evolving on a big granular tannic frame lingering on fruit like dark cherries, violet, elderberry sorbet and griotte, banana, pomegranate

Nestled at the edge of the Mayacamas Mountains in the center of Napa Valley, To Kalon receives just enough morning fog and full day sun to produce Cabernet Sauvignon grapes with complex layers.

Varietal: 100% Cabernet Sauvignon

Fermentation: 23 months in 70% new oak, 100% French Oak

Case Production: 200
